According to Shiv Puran, A Shiva Devotee by Name Supriya Was Attacked By A Demon Daruka While In A Boat. The Demon Imprisoned Him Along with Several Others At His Capital Daruka Forest (Jungle) Where He Resided With His Wife Daruki. Supriya Advised All Prisoners To Recite The Mantra 'Om Namah Shivaya'. When Daruka Came to Know About This He Ran To Kill Supriya. Instantly Lord Shiva Appeared in The Form Of A Jyotirling. One of The Nageshwar's Attractions Is The 26 M Statue Of A Sitting Shiva Outside

Rukhmani Temple Rukhmani Temple Is Located 2 Kms Away from Dwarka There Is A Myth Associated With It Once Krishna And Rukhmani Went To 'Durvasha Rushi' To Invite Him At Dwarka. He Was Agreed On the Condition That They (Krishna & Rukhmani) Have To Carry The Cart Instead Of Any Animal. Krishna & Rukhmani Happily Agreed to Do So. While Driving the Cart, Rukhmani Became Thirsty. Then Krishna Stopped The Cart And Made Water From Holy River Ganga By Pressing Leg Thumb At Land.
